

SweetR™ Creates a New Healthier-For-You, Functional Sweetener Category

Consumers want products that are zero sugar or help them reduce their sugar intake while still remaining healthy and clean label. Who can blame them for being frustrated when they discover some alternative sweeteners are not indeed healthier or clean label, and that some zero-sugar products are worse for their health than their sugar-filled counterparts?

For formulators, “sugar free” is becoming more of a challenge than a solution. It’s time to stop this whole zero-sugar madness!

The answer isn’t zero sugar.
The answer is ending the use of unhealthy sweeteners.

Consumers don’t want to sacrifice their health for great-tasting sweetener options, and they shouldn’t have to. We all use sweeteners for a variety of applications. Can’t a sweetener also serve another purpose? BLS believes it can.

Introducing SweetR: our patented multi-functional, all-natural, low-calorie sweetener complex.

This is your answer! SweetR is healthier for you in multiple ways. Plus,

- It is instantly metabolized, not stored as calories in the body, making it perfect for the waistline.
